

As this summer draws to a close, back to school preparations begin! Whether students will be heading back to the classroom or learning at home this fall, World Book is here to support educators and parents in their educational efforts by providing trustworthy, award-winning digital solutions, new core reference, print series releases, and professional development.

In this month's World Book Wired, we're sharing helpful resources to make your transition back to school easier.

BACK TO SCHOOL PREP

OUTTA THIS WORLD

Developed in collaboration with NASA's NIAC program, the Out of This World 2 series explores plans to build a new type of rover and allow a spacecraft to touch the sun.

DINO-MITE!

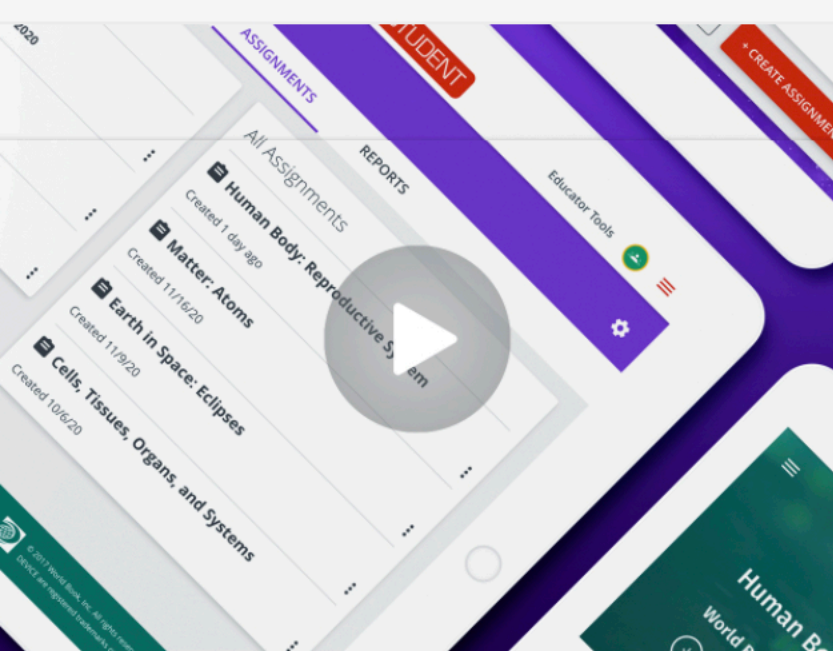

There's never been a better time to be a dinosaur fan. Check out the fully revised dinosaur article and more in the 2022 edition of The World Book Encyclopedia—available for pre-sale!

STARTER A-Z

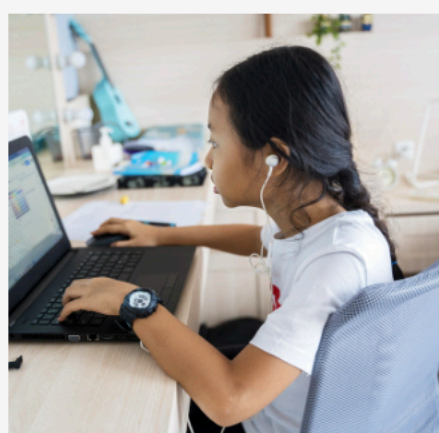

Encouraging young readers to expand their curiosity, the new Discovery Encyclopedia is a starter general A-Z look-up source in 13 hardcover volumes. Available for pre-sale!

Need help making up for lost learning? World Book Wizard is a new way of learning—technology, data, and a smart algorithm wrapped up into one! As learners use Wizard, teachers can analyze the data and better understand each student's individual needs, where they are struggling, and which methods of teaching are helping. Watch our overview video today.

DO YOU USE IE11?

World Book Online will soon no longer support Internet Explorer 11 ("IE11") and the legacy version of the Microsoft Edge browser* in tandem with Microsoft's own cut-off date. On August 17, 2021, World Book Online will end support for these legacy browsers, which is the same date that Microsoft 365 apps and services will no longer support them.
