Teaching Resources

- Share articles for pre-reading via Google classroom the day before a lesson.
- Build background knowledge by viewing material together as a class or in small groups.
- Use built-in tools for accommodation on articles such as the ability to change font size, have the article read aloud, translate into another language, and double click words in context to define them.
- Lesson Plans can be found under Educator Tools.
- Help pre-emergent readers learn to read and build phonemic awareness with the read aloud function in Early Learning and eBooks.
- Use World Book as a safe, trusted source to model research in real-time on the Smart Board.
- Discussion questions found on articles can be used as comprehension questions or as pre and post reading questions.
- Find materials by standard to tie directly to lesson objectives.
- Teach active reading strategies with the annotation tools in eBooks.
- Use eBooks for whole group and small group instruction – unlimited simultaneous access promotes collaboration and group work.

- Science Projects & Activities in Kids contain a teacher version with a lesson plan.
- WebQuests contain a key and make for a quick sub plan.
- Graphic organizers are downloadable and provide a variety of ways for students to organize their thinking.
- Teaching with documents, found in Advanced, make great lessons with primary sources.
- Save yourself time by using World Book as your source to plan a unit, gather material, fact check, and pull resources for students – much quicker than typing search terms into a browser.
- Provide articles matching the appropriate Lexile level.
- Kick-off mini lessons with a World Book article, video, or parts of speech found inside the dictionary.
- Teach reading with the Guided reading Program found in Early Learning.
- STEM support material found throughout the core databases, timelines, and eBooks.
- World Newspapers in Advanced promote global awareness and perspective – how are different countries reporting the same issue?
- Support the early learning curriculum with posters, activities, games, and other material organized by topic (numbers, weather, colors, etc.)
