

World eBooks Activity Sheet

Trek's Travels: Trek Learns About Opposites

Talking about opposites

1. Why was it a bad day for Trek?

2. Why was it a bad day for Seagull?

3. Why was it a bad day for Wagtail?

4. Why was it a bad day for Crow?

5. Was Trek's hat new or old?

6. Did Seagull think she looked beautiful or ugly?

7. Was Wagtail's song happy or sad?

8. Did Crow find a quiet place or a noisy one?

9. Can you think of the opposite of right?

10. Can you think of the opposite of straight?

11. Can you think of the opposite of dry?

12. Can you think of the opposite of fat?

13. Do you have bad days like Trek and his friends?

Match the opposites from the word lists below.

List one clean

hot empty

new

dry

first

List two old

full

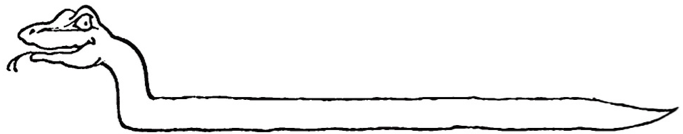

wet

dirty

last cold

Color the longest snake green.

Color the shortest snake red.

Objective: The objective is to understand the language of opposite.

Trek's World Travels

Where in the world does Trek learn to fly?

United Kingdom and Ireland

ANSWERS

1. Trek wanted to take a hot bath, but the water was cold.
2. Seagull looked for a branch to sit on, but every branch was full.
3. Wagtail tried to find a light twig, but the one he found was too heavy to carry.
4. Crow hunted for some sweet berries for lunch, but the ones he found were sour.
5. Old
6. Seagull thought she looked ugly.
7. Sad
8. Noisy
9. Left
10. Curved
11. Wet
12. Thin

